About Navdiva Group

Navdiva Group (The ND Group) is a forward-thinking conglomerate based in Delhi, India. We are a multi-disciplinary organization with a focus on integrating modern technology into essential life sectors, including Web Development, E-commerce, Construction, and Retail.

Our core strength lies in our ability to deliver high-performance solutions—from "HTML-First" digital architectures to automated construction management systems. We pride ourselves on operational excellence and a client-first approach across all our subsidiaries.

Our Group Entities

NDTechHub

The technological core of our group. Specializing in high-speed, lightweight web development (HTML/JS/CSS focus) and advanced AI implementation using the Gemini ecosystem.

NDMart

Our flagship e-commerce platform (ndmart.store), bridging the gap between retail and wholesale for premium garments and high-quality crockery.

Project GHAR

A specialized construction portal providing automated building layouts, material quantity estimations, and labor cost analysis for modern residential projects.

Rameshta & Navdiva Corporate

Managing our diversified retail interests and central corporate operations, ensuring streamlined management and unified branding across the group.

Leadership Vision

"At Navdiva Group, we don't just build websites or buildings; we build trust through efficiency. Our goal is to make professional services accessible and technologically advanced for everyone."

— Rakhi Kushwaha, Managing Director
